W. E. MYER FARM

CARTHAGE

AT AUCTION

Monday, August 2nd 1 P. M.

In suburbs of Carthage, one mile from railroad depot. River locked and dammed and steamboats land at your door the year round.

490 acres of the most highly improved fertile river bottom and upland in Tennessee.

Has five dwellings, several large barns, a silo and a dairy. Poles set far electric lights. Has been divided into ten tracts, ranging from 15, 25, 50, 60, 80 and up to 125 acres. All the large tracts have dwellings and good barns.

Fine rich soil which lies so you can use all kinds of modern labor saving machinery.

It Is Money Making. Is Now Land.

You reap the benefits of the many thousands of dollars spent in draining, liming, turning under green crops and otherwise bringing up to extra high productivity.

An up-to-date high school at your door, as the Smith County High School is on the western edge of the farm.

Have you been longing for better education for your children and more of the pleasures and comforts of life? This farm offers all the comforts, conveniences and recreations of town. Electric lights, telephone, electric power, high school, lectures, moving pictures, railroad, year round transportation.

You can get high prices for your farm products, as you can sell them at retail to the town people who come to your door, anxious to get them.

Will sell any one of the tracts, or as many as may be desired, privately at any time before August 2nd, if you do not want to wait for the auction.

As I have retired from active business and not need the money I am able to make the extra liberal terms:

One-fourth cash, balance in one, two, three, four and five years.

Possession January 1st, next. Hubert Turner, Carthage will show the land and make close price.
